Terms and Conditions

If there is a difference in meaning or interpretation in any translations of this information or conditions the English version shall apply.

Payment of Fees

1. All fees must be paid in full in advance for the period of tuition. All student fees are protected in the School's Trust Account which is controlled by an independent company [RSM Prince]. Payments are made in arrears to the school.
2. All fees are calculated in full weeks. Study for any portion of the week will incur the full week's fee. No compensation is given for public holidays when the school is closed.
3. Enrolment and offer of place documentation must be signed and stamped with the school's seal and be on the school's database for these to be valid. Promises made by agents must be backed up by formal documentation for these to be valid. Students' valid permit must reflect the programme in which the student is enrolled.
4. Students enrolling in two programmes will require two Offers of Place – the first offer may be the program in which the student gains his/her student visa/permit. This will need to be changed when enrolment in the second program commences. This will be an additional cost.
5. Offers of Place will be subject to availability of places and the verification of documents required meeting entry standards that may apply for any course. Students who do not meet English standards will be placed in an alternative English program.
6. Offers of Place will be withdrawn if the student fails to provide documentation required/produces false documents/refuses to obtain medical insurance/fails to present the passport within the first week.
7. Students who have special needs which were not declared at the time of application will be charged additional fees if additional services are required/ provided to enable the student to continue in his/her studies. The school reserves the right to cancel enrolment if the student refuses to bear the cost of any additional services deemed necessary by the school.

Cancellations, Refunds & Delayed Starts

8. The New Zealand Institute of Studies Limited reserves the right to cancel any course due to insufficient demand, unavailability of suitable staff or facilities, or any other reason. In all cases students will be offered alternative course dates. The possible students will be offered alternative course dates or an alternative suitable study program. Where this is not available students will be offered the choice between an alternative provider or will receive the unexpired portion of fees determined on a pro rata basis relating to the time elapsed in the course.
9. If a student cancels before his/her course commences he/she will be refunded fees paid in accordance with the statutory refund provisions. All requests for cancellation/withdrawal must be completed in writing by the student.
10. Students must advise the school in writing if unable to commence classes on the date agreed. Students who wish to delay the start of a course must receive approval in writing from the Director, Student Services prior to the start date. Students who delay the start of their course without prior written approval will be deemed to have started and the statutory refund period will apply. Tuition fees will be deducted for the period of absence.

Holidays & Sickness

11. Students enrolled for more than 12 weeks may have one week's holiday. These may be accumulated and taken at one time. Students need permission to take a holiday. This needs to be asked for at least one week before the first day of the holiday. Students who take holidays without permission will be marked absent. Students in qualification programmes must take holiday during course breaks.
12. Students who are sick must phone the school before 9.00am. Students, who are absent for two days or more, must have the medical certificates from NZ Registered doctors. Names of doctors can be obtained from the school.
13. All students enrolled at this school must have the appropriate medical insurance before commencement of studies. This applies to all students in NZ on a temporary entry permit.

Attendance

14. Students must attend school every day and be on time for classes. Students are required to comply with the conditions of their student permit [if applicable]. Classes missed will be recorded on the student's attendance record. If a student consistently misses school Immigration NZ will be advised [where applicable].
15. Attendance is compulsory for all out of class activities which form part of the learning program. There may be additional costs associated with these activities.

Immigration NZ Status

16. International students must have the correct Immigration NZ status before commencing any studies at the school. This applies to the whole of the semester and enrolment period.
17. Students enrolled for a programme of 13 weeks or more must have a student permit for the whole of the course before the course commences.
18. Students with a Student permit must be enrolled full time and can work only if the permit indicates this.
19. Students on working holiday/work permit/visitors permit can enrol for a period of no more than 12 weeks. For any period beyond this time a student permit must be obtained.
